

Happy Birthday

Happy 22nd birthday to the love of my life💖 It still blows my mind how our story unravelled, from two kids running around the grounds at Acacia to two bigger kids falling in love and planning a future together. Thank you for liking that weird kid back then and thank you for loving this weird guy right now, hope your day is as amazing as you are and I can't wait to see you again. I Love you Nadia, have an amazing birthday
